NEW C. & O. DEPOT WILL BE OPEN TOMORROW

Maysville's New Station Will Be Thrown Open For Use Immediately After Noon Tomorrow.

For some time the new C. & O. passenger depot has been ready for occupancy, but owing to the roadways around it not being completed and surfaced it was thought best not to throw it open for use until this was done.

As the contractors now have the work completed to a point where there will be no danger of taking mud and dirt into the new structure, Agent W. W. Wilkoff today decided to have the opening tomorrow afternoon, when tickets will first be sold for train No. 3, but the moving of the working forces will be done immediately after the noon hour.

The new edifice is a splendid addition to the many new buildings in that end of town. Its cost is considerably over what the first estimate was, as the vast amount of concrete work surrounding it was not figured in the original cost. It is a most complete building, there being separate apartments for women and men and colored people.

The old depot has been demolished and the room will be used for yard purposes.

MISS EDITH EASTON DIES OF PNEUMONIA

Popular Saleslady Succumbs to Pneumonia Early Wednesday Morning.

Another sad death was added to Maysville's list this morning, when the news of the passing away of Miss Edith Easton became known.

After a short week's illness of bronchial pneumonia, her frail body, being unable to combat this dread disease, Edith passed away at the home of her parents of West Third street.

The deceased was the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Easton, and had but recently attained her 27th birthday. She was exceedingly popular with all, having been saleslady at the H. H. Barkley Shoe Store for several years, and was known for her sweet and lovable disposition.

She is survived by her parents and one brother, Charles Easton. The funeral arrangements have not as yet been announced.

ALLIES BATTLE IN RAIN AND MUD TO FREE BELGIUM

"Flashes of a Thousand Roaring Guns Pierce Surrounding Mists"—German Resistance Most Desperate—Men in Battle and Little Is About to Be Outlooked.

London, October 16.—In fog and rain and mud the tremendous battle for Belgium is continuing desperately, with the Allies gaining step by step on a 30-mile front against the greatest resistance the enemy has yet made in the West. The finest troops of Belgium, Britain and France are fighting with grim determination and unyielding courage through the ooze that sometimes reaches to their knees.

The flashes of a thousand roaring guns pierce the mists, and the flames of villages set on fire by the ever-treating Germans are reflected by the walls of fog. Picked Allied troops, sent ahead to storm, almost lose their way in the mire. The wounded, as they are sent back to the rear, are coated with mud.

Menin, a great railway junction, five miles southeast of Courtrai, has fallen. Advance patrols are within a mile of Courtrai. Thourout, a vital transportation center, may fall any moment.

Wire entanglements of extraordinary depth have been encountered and passed, and innumerable "pill-boxes" reduced. More than 12,000 prisoners and more than 100 guns have been captured. The Germans are hurrying great masses of men into rear-guard actions.

The capture of Thourout and the advance upon Courtrai leaves the Germans will be forced out of that city in a short time. The Allied troops now are but eleven miles from Bruges and twenty-five miles from Ghent.

Reports that the Germans, before abandoning Roulers, removed Spanish and American railroads valued at $9,000, have been confirmed by the civilians there. The latter guided the French soldiers to enemy mines which were laid by the Germans with the intention of destroying a large part of the town. A number of Germans hiding in the town were found and sent to prison camps.

Americans Surround Enemy, Then Close In

With the American Army North-west of Verdun, October 16.—In one of the most desperate bits of fighting which yet has fallen to the lot of the Americans they have wiped out hundreds of German machine gun nests, captured Hill 299, penetrated the strong wire defenses between Landres-et-St. Georges and St. Georges, passing St. Juvin, and thus have widened the breach in the famous Kriemhilde line. The Germans brought up fresh divisions to stop the Yankees. The method of the Americans was to surround each objective, instead of making a direct attack, and then to close in.

PANIC IN BERLIN CAUSED BY THE ALLIES' REPLY

President's Answer to Chancellor Starke's Financial Crash—Supreme Command Hasten to Capital—Talk of Mobilization, Concentrating Strength and Raising Army Age.

London, October 16.—President Wilson's reply to the German peace note produced "a most unfavorable impression" in Berlin, says a Central News dispatch from Amsterdam today. The publication of the reply, it adds, was followed by a panic in Berlin banking circles and on the stock exchange.

The German supreme command, the advice states, will come to Berlin at the end of the present week to deliberate on mobilization, concentration of the national strength and the raising of the military age.

"Down With Kaiser and Hindenburg"

Amsterdam, October 16.—Peace riots have broken out in Berlin.

A mob marched through the streets shouting: "Down with the war, the Kaiser and Hindenburg."

A pitched battle was fought between rioters and the police.

Statues of the Hohenzollerns were smashed and the residence of the burgomaster was stoned.

At the same time it was reported that serious mutinies had broken out in the German army in Limburg.

Reichstag Session Delayed By Leaders

Basel, Switzerland, October 16.—The session of the Reichstag, which was to have begun today, has been postponed by the president of that body, with the reservation that he may summon it later, according to reports from Berlin. On account of the general political condition, the German Socialists have decided not to oppose Prince Maximilian retaining his post of imperial chancellor.

Turks Must Negotiate With Allies

London, October 16.—Unconditional surrender will be the demand which Great Britain will make of Turkey, in reply to its peace note. It is reported here. The Turks will have to negotiate an armistice with Gen. Allenby, commander of the British forces in Palestine and Syria.

Great Enthusiasm Manifested in Paris

Paris, October 16.—Enthusiastic approval is given President Wilson's reply to Germany by the morning newspapers today. The Picaro says President Wilson's depth of thought and staunch loyalty no longer permit the Germans to compromise with defeat. It adds that it puts the question of German morality with singular force and that is the question which divides the world.

SPLENDID YOUNG SOLDIER GIVES ALL OVER IN FRANCE

Lieutenant Joseph Valvert Answers Final Summons in France.

An official message of the death of Lieutenant Joseph Valvert was received by his family Tuesday afternoon, stating that he had succumbed to an attack of bronchial pneumonia, September 30.

The news of his death came as a sad surprise to Joe's many friends in this community, as it has only been a short time since he was in the city, strong and ruddy looking, and appearing every inch the soldier that he was.

It has only been a few weeks ago, since Joe received his commission as Lieutenant at Fort Benjamin Harrison, where he was transferred immediately overseas. He would have attained his 25th birthday, the 25th of next month.

Mr. Valvert was President of the E. L. Manchester Produce Co. and a member of the Elks Lodge.

He survived by his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Valvert, three brothers, Messrs. Clint Valvert of this city, Herman Valvert of Henderson, N. C., and Harry Valvert of Augusta, and two sisters, Mrs. Lisle Threlkeld of Augusta, Ga., and Miss Elizabeth Valvert.

APPEAL FOR CHILDREN'S CLOTHING

An urgent appeal has been made by Health Nurse Miss Casey for clothing for children of the ages between 8 and 14 years. As our citizens gave so liberally to the children of Belgium, which was exactly what they should have done, it is now up to them to respond as liberally as possible to our home needs. Miss Casey never makes an appeal that is not wholly necessary, and she asks that those who can do so please call her or send the clothes to the Health office.

SUPERINTENDENT CHAMBERS' GOOD ADVICE

The Maysville Telephone Company, through its Superintendent, Col. B. Y. Chambers, has issued a very wise bulletin. They ask the telephone subscribers in order to avoid any risk of contracting influenza by the use of the phones, to unscrew the hard rubber mouthpiece and rub it with a rag moistened with carbolic acid or some other disinfectant. This is timely and should be complied with.

BILLIONS MORE FOR AMERICA'S GREAT FIGHTERS

Answer of the House to the Pleas of Germany—Aid Without Stint—Additional Appropriation of $9,000,000,000 for the Army.

Washington, October 16.—Billions of dollars to be appropriated for the army is the unmistakable notice the House of Representatives of the United States will serve today on the crumbling German military autocracy that it has only begun to fight.

It is reported these estimates will total more than $9,000,000,000 in cash and contract authorizations, a staggering sum, exceeding the $8,000,000,000 it is proposed to raise by taxation under the pending revenue bill, of the $6,000,000,000 Fourth Liberty loan. The sum of $9,000,000,000 is more money than is in circulation in the United States.

Representative Sherley of Kentucky chairman of the House Appropriations committee, who will explain the bill to the House, has pruned and pared the estimates wherever possible, but his policy and that of the other members of the committee has been that there would be no stinting the American army in its fight against the Germans.

The original army estimate, under the new American manpower plans, was $7,347,000,000, to which an additional estimate for artillery of $1,155,353,382 alone was added.

Then the navy, which has been doing valiant service in conveying American troops overseas, came along with an estimate of its own, amounting to $125,000,000 and on top of that, the Shipping Board was heard from with a request for $484,000,000 for more steel and wooden ships, as well as shipyard facilities that the Government might continue to send abroad 250,000 men, with their supplies, every month.

Before the new estimates were submitted to Chairman Sherley the army already had been provided in cash and contract authorizations with more than $17,000,000,000 for this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Webster T. White of Indianapolis, Ind., are here visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. P. McClanahan.

"FLU" REACHES HIGH MARK IN EVERY STATE

Army Camp Situation Better; Health Board of Kentucky Says Conditions Are Worse.

Washington, October 16.—Increased authority in combating epidemics would be granted the Public Health Service by Senate resolution adopted today by the House. The resolution specifically creates a sanitary reserve in the Public Health Service, but also provides for raising the rank of officers in the service and authorizes the President to commission physicians as sanitarians, senior assistant sanitarians and assistant sanitarians.

Washington, October 16.—Spanish influenza now has reached epidemic proportions in practically every state in the country and in only three has it been reported as stationary, with some improvement in the situation in Massachusetts. In spite of all efforts by federal, state and local authorities, the disease has spread rapidly and the death toll has been high in most parts of the nation.

In army camps the epidemic is subsiding, a further decrease in the number of new cases being noted today at the office of the Surgeon General of the army. The total of cases reported was 6498, a decrease of 773 from yesterday. Pneumonia cases were 1916, against 2523 the day before, but the number of deaths increased, being 889 against 716 yesterday.

Following a conference held in Bowling Green yesterday between Dr. John G. South, president of the State Board of Health, Dr. J. A. McCormick, secretary of the board, and other members, the announcement was made by Dr. McCormick that the influenza quarantine in the State, except in a few places would not be lifted nor even loosened in the near future, because health conditions are worse than they ever have been during the epidemic.

A telegram of Dr. McCormick's sent out for publication last night follows in part:

"The restrictions of October 6, placed by the State Board of Health on all theaters, churches and gatherings of any character in order not to permit a further spreading of influenza epidemic, will not be lifted or even loosened within the next few days because the health conditions, except in a few places are worse than they have been during the epidemic."

They are planning up in Milwaukee to plant shade trees as memorials to the soldiers and sailors from there, who have lost their lives in the war now going on. There is to be a tree for each soldier, to bear the name of the man whom it commemorates and other information about him. They purpose to plant the trees along some great highway or in a park or on a tract of ground brought for the purpose. It would be a noble idea to have some green woods dedicated to the purpose. There could be no finer monument; no nobler tribute to the heroic dead. With what pride posterity would look upon such a grove, celebrating the memories of the boys who have their lives for their country! And what an inspiration it would be to all youths in the future in case their country is attacked by a foreign or internal foe!

Is Yours a Service Family?

WILL Teddy fight?
Say, will the Yanks win?
Teddy's stood for fight over since a neighbor's boy—then two—just three months older than T. R., decided he wanted Theodore's toy balloon.

And not only has Teddy always stood for fight, but he has fought. This photograph, just taken of the Roosevelt family, shows Teddy's fighting blood doesn't end with T. R. Sr.

There are three stars in the Roosevelt service flag—one is gold—the other two blue. The gold star stands for Quentin, who has given his life as an aviator—fighting for the land which has long honored the Roosevelt name.

One of the other stars is for Archie, who has been wounded, and the third is for Theodore, Jr.

The group here is made up of Theodore Roosevelt's grandson, the baby of Archie; Theodore Roosevelt, Captain Archie's wife, Richard Derby, Jr., Mrs. Roosevelt and Baby Edith Derby on her mother's—Ethel Roosevelt's—lap.

The Roosevelt family is a service family.

EX-CATTLE KING OF MEXICO NOW COUNTS PENNIES

(Once Worth Millions, He Lives in Exile After Losing Wealth)

El Paso, Texas—Each evening at sunset an old man with silver white hair and a snowy beard may be seen walking around the plaza taking his daily exercises with his two bodyguards.

He is Gen. Luis Terrazas, octogenarian exile from Mexico, who lost virtually all his fortune in the revolution of Madero and Villa and now is forced by political conditions in the country to live on the border.

With the Madero revolution started in 1911, "Don Luis" was known as the cattle king of Mexico. His herds numbered more than 200,000 head and grazed on a thousand hills and plains of northern Mexico. His estates stretched from the Rio Grande to Chihuahua City, and he could ride for twenty-four hours by train over his own acres, which then numbered more than a million.

From his offices in the state capital Gen. Terrazas governed this vast cattle empire, conducted a bank and many other industries connected with his cattle business. He and his large family lived in luxury in a marble palace on the Alameda or at Quinta Carolina, his summer home on the plains. Train after train of cattle arrived at the border from the Terrazas ranches.

His annual export averaged 25,000 head, and the "T-Hunning-S" brand was as well known in the Chicago, Kansas City, and Fort Worth stockyards as it was in Mexico. The Terrazas holdings were estimated to be worth $5,000,000, but were not for sale at any price.

Now Gen. Terrazas and his family live in a rented house on Golden hill. He rides to his office in an old automobile, and buys his groceries from a cash and carry store.

The revolutionists under Madero, Orozco, and other leaders killed the Terrazas cattle for food, burned his ranch buildings, and looted his stores and warehouses. Then Francisco Villa, acting as commander in the north for Gen. Carranza, issued a decree confiscating all of the Terrazas holdings, including the herds, lands, and personal property.

Gen. Terrazas was forced to flee from Mexico before Villa's advance on Chihuahua City from Juarez. He made the long trek to the border at Ojinaga with the fleeing federal column. He never returned to Mexico.

On July 22 last Gen. Terrazas celebrated his 89th birthday anniversary, surrounded by his ten sons, seventy-five grandchildren, and many more relatives.

It is his dream to be permitted to return to his native land with sufficient guarantees to allow him to begin over again to reestablish the Terrazas fortune.

THERE'S A DIFFERENCE

The man who enlists his dollars with Uncle Sam is assured that they will be returned to him after a stated period, and that meanwhile they will earn him a fixed rate of interest. He has no fear that he will lose them.

But the man who enlists his life in Uncle Sam's service and goes to the front line trenches to manipulate a machine gun has no assurance that he will ever come back, or that if he does he will not be permanently maim and incapacitated.

The one is a lead pipe cinch, to use a popular expression.
The other is the greatest gamble a man may make.

There is some difference between them, believe me.

Somewhere or another during this campaign you have seen one of the returned veterans who are back here in behalf of the Liberty Loan. You looked him over with a keen interest, with much curious speculation and perhaps some measure of awe.

For he had been through the mill. He had heard the thunder of the big guns, the rattle of the machine guns, the explosions of big and little shells. He had seen men torn by shrapnel, killed by machine gun bullets, stunned from shell shock.

He had gone over the top; and gone riding in No Man's Land by night; he had done his bit.

He had got his.
Maybe he had lost an arm, a leg, an eye. Maybe he had been shot through and through. Maybe he had been gassed.

Anyway he had been put out of it. As a soldier he was all in. A veteran; shelled and end indexed. And all but incapacitated for civil life.

And yet considered himself a lucky dog to get away at that.

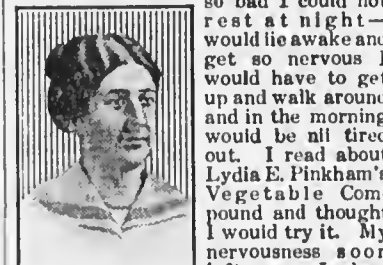

Yet after looking him over there are some folks who stand back, hesitating to invest in a Liberty Bond. But thank heaven there aren't many such. Appreciative folks will buy early and more than they thought they could.

They will see the difference.

WOMAN'S NERVES MADE STRONG

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Winona, Minn.—"I suffered for more than a year from nervousness, and was so bad I could not rest at night—I would lie awake and get so nervous I would have to get up and walk around and in the morning would be all tired out. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and thought I would try it. My nervousness soon left me. I sleep well and feel fine in the morning and able to do my work. I gladly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to make weak nerves strong."—MRS. ALBERT SULTZ, 603 Olmstead St., Winona, Minn.

How often do we hear the expression among women, "I am so nervous, I cannot sleep," or "It seems as though I should fly." Such women should profit by Mrs. Sultz's experience and give this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial.

For forty years it has been overcoming such serious conditions as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, dizziness, and nervous prostration of women, and is now considered the standard remedy for such ailments.

BACKACHE IS A WARNING

Maysville People Should Not Neglect Their Kidneys.

Backache is often nature's most frequent signal of weakened kidneys. To cure the pains and aches, to remove the lameness when it arises from weakened kidneys, you must reach the cause—the kidneys. If you have pain through the small of your back, urinary disorders, headaches, dizzy spells, or are nervous and depressed, start treating the kidneys with a tested kidney remedy.

Doan's Kidney Pills have been proved good and are especially for weak kidneys. Doan's have been used in kidney trouble for over 50 years. Read Maysville testimony.

Mrs. E. Sphar, E. Second and Walnut Sts., says: "I have never seen Doan's Kidney Pills fail to help anyone complaining of their kidneys. I have been greatly benefited by them myself. At times my back has ached and I have suffered from lameness through the small of my back. When I have been in that way, I have used a box or so of Doan's Kidney Pills, which I procured at Chansior's Drug Store. They have always quickly removed the trouble."

Mrs. Sphar is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, the same that Mrs. Sphar had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 60 cents at all stores. Of Wisconsin says: "We fully appreciate that there is no necessity for two or three cream stations in one city, and that a cream station is unnecessary where a creamery is properly serving the farmers. We most heartily believe that farmers should build their own co-operative creameries and operate them on business-like principles. The cream buying station can not pay as much for fat as a well patronized and properly operated creamery. We believe, too, that the farmer who leaves his co-operative creamery to sell cream to a local cream station is working against his own interest and in time will be led to see his mistake."

Stick to Your Trench

Remember, you've got to stick to your trench—
Yes, stick like glue to your trench.
You dig while it's dark, and you work while it's light,
And then there's the "listening post" at night.
Though you're soaked to the skin and chilled to the bone;
Though your hands are like ice, and your feet like stone;
Though your watch is long, and your rest is brief,
And you pray like hell for the next relief;
Though the wind may howl, and the rain may drench,
Remember you've got to stick to your trench—
Yes, stick like mud to your trench.

Perhaps a bullet may find its mark,
And then there's a funeral after dark;
And you say, as you lay him beneath the sod,
A sportsman's soul has gone to his God.
Behind the trench, in the open ground,
There's a little cross and a little mound;
And if at your heart-strings you feel a wrench,
Remember, he died for his blooming trench—
Yes, he died like a man for his trench.

There's a rush and a dash, and they're at your wire,
And you open the hell of a rapid fire;
The Maxims rattle, the rifles flash,
And the bombs explode with a sickening crash.
You give them lead, and you give them steel,
'Til at last they waver, and turn, and reel.
You've done your job—there was never a blench
You've given them Hell, and you've saved your trench;
BY GOD YOU'VE STUCK TO YOUR TRENCH!

CAPT. C. W. BLACKALL.
(Fighting in France.)

We too can and will play the game. WE will stick to our trenches—ours can't be mentioned in the same breath with theirs but ours are not always Paradise. We can save till it HURTS to help these fighting men, and not one day or week, but every day till the war is won, and they come home to the greatest welcome humans ever got. Then they can look us in the eye and say, "By God, you've stuck to your Trench!"

We'll Stick; We'll Save---Till it Hurts.

And will put every sacred Dollar we can save into this Fight. We'll make our part as big as it is possible to make it in these trenches behind the lines.

OUR COUNTRY has called (and is still calling) our men, our men; our women, your women; our boys, your boys—their places have been filled by others in part. Unfamiliar as these must be with your requirements and our methods, annoyances will occur. Mistakes will be made. This is unfortunate and also unavoidable—to grumble over slight inconveniences or bemoan trivial loss does not better our Americanism. Those whose skill and experience could have prevented these conditions are now fighting. We are at war and the war must be won. To do so, our boys and your boys are facing the unknown—even unto the supreme sacrifice—shall we not bear some of the burden? Then let us be mutually helpful. Let us co-operate. If mistakes are made, if annoyances do occur, if inconveniences arise, let us be as patient and as considerate as possible with those who shoulder the responsibilities at home—they are doing their best. We shall do our best. Help us to improve that best by notifying us immediately of any mistakes.

FORGED CHECK SO HE COULD GET IN ARMY

Muncie, Ind.—So determined to enter the army was Paul Love, age 18, that, according to his own story, he turned forger in the hope that a criminal record would make it easier to enter his country's service.

The youth, on being arrested after he had tried to pass a bad check for $17 on C. W. Koehlinger, owner of a bicycle store, told the police he had read several times in newspapers where criminals had been released by courts when they agreed to enlist in the army. He said he had been rejected when he tried to enlist and he thought by committing forgery, being arrested, and then promising to join the army to escape punishment, the road might be opened to his entrance into military service.

The youth is being detained and he may be recommended for army service.

12,966,594 WERE ENROLLED SEPTEMBER 12

Washington, October 15—Final returns from all states show that 12,966,594 men registered for military service September 12. This was 187,136 in excess of the estimate of 12,778,758 made by experts in the office of Provost Marshal General Crowder, based on projections from census figures.

With the figures compiled today, the total number of men who have been registered in the reservoir of the selective service system since the United States entered the war, including those registered June 5, 1917, last June 5 and August 24 and September 12 is 23,456,921.

COLORED DESERTER ARRESTED

Felan O. Green, colored, was taken into custody by Chief of Police Harry A. Ort yesterday afternoon as a deserter from Camp Alexander, Va. Green's home is in this city and he was granted a furlough to October 12 to visit home folks. He erased the date on his leave of absence card, and wrote November 12 in the date place. The War Department, having further need of Felan's services, telegraphed Chief Ort to be on the lookout for Green, and if caught to notify his camp at once. One of the sergeants from Camp Alexander will probably arrive in a few days to take Green in charge.

Mr. James Brown is confined to his home with the Spanish influenza.

Sunny Italy Welcomes Yanks

ARE the Yankees welcome over yonder? You can be mighty sure they are—everywhere. Italy—brave, hardy, hold-fast Italy—is right near the top of the heap when it has come to receiving the Yanks cordially.

These folks down there in the boot of Europe know a good thing when they see it—and know men when they see them. Here is an official photograph of Italians welcoming the boys of Uncle Sam just as they arrived there to help fight back the Germans.

But those boys of ours can't live on welcome. They've got to have folks back here for 'em as well as folks overseas.

YOUNG GIRL IS BRUTALLY BEATEN

Stepmother Hits 16 Year Old Girl Over the Head With Chair.

Mary Richie, a 16-year-old girl, residing in the East end of the city, came to the Police Court last evening, for protection against her stepmother, Mrs. Elbert Richie, whom she claims had cruelly beaten her over the head with a chair.

The girl's head was bleeding profusely and her dress down the front was covered with blood, presenting a most pitiful sight.

She stated that because she had objected to her stepmother calling her names and teaching her young brother to do likewise that the Richie woman had picked up a chair, hit her over the head with it three times.

FIRE BREAKS OUT AFRESH IN FOREST AREA

Duluth, Minn., October 16—Fanned by a wind increasing in velocity, forest fires broke out afresh last night on a twenty-five-mile stretch between Lawler and McGrath, about sixty miles southwest of here. Adjutant General Rhinow and Governor Burnquist left Duluth for Lawler and Aiken with 100 home guardsmen to aid in fighting the flames.

McGrath is reported to be burning and the fire, reports said, was advancing on Solona, White Pine and other villages.

General Rhinow is considering calling out the entire guards force of the state to hold the flames in check.

HALT! ATTENTION

Read this telegram, just received by Chairman Kehoe and heed the cry of your country. This is right from headquarters and they know the needs of the Government.

This is the most important hour of all.

Don't slack! Carry on. Come across with your money, at once, if you want to win the war and get the Kaiser. It can't be done unless Liberty Bonds are sold.

Liberty Loan Committee, Cleveland, Ohio.

J. N. Kehoe, Chairman, Maysville, Ky., Mason County.

Unbelievable as it is we have been asked today from many quarters in the district whether the Loan Campaign should continue in view of the development of Germany's so called acceptance of peace. This astounding condition brings us face to face with the evil purpose of our enemies to dupe our people and destroy the Loan's success. If the Fourth Liberty Loan falls short Germany will have won her greatest victory of the war. The hour has struck in at which all real patriots in every community must rise in their might and hurl in the Kaiser's face this answer "Give everything we have if need be for victory." Liberty Loan Committees bear the great leadership of the hour. In the name of all that is sacred to Liberty let us give the Hun an answer that will bring him to his knees. That answer is convincing over subscription to the Fourth Loan. Let's go and get it.
